CONVENTION HA' L. BALTIMORE, June 27. Spurred by the promise of a lively action in the Democratic National Convention, the crowds today took an early start for the armory.

For the spectators the first centre of attraction was Mrs. William Howard Taft wife of the President of the United States, who, with Mrs. Norman E. Mack, arrived three-quarters of an hour before the convention met. Mrs. Taft wore purple embroidered with white cloth, and wore a purple hat trimmed with black velvet.

Her seat was in the front row of the guests' balcony, to the left of the chairman's stand and immediately overlooking the west section of the press gallery. She had read in its every detail the story of Chicago and she was curiously interested in the work of the opposing convention.

Baroness Weds Boston Man Bride of Organist Tonight

By ELIZABETH ELLIOTT.

The wedding in St. Catherine's Church, Southview, at 4 o'clock this evening, of Miss Karl Hildegarde Schaefer, Baroness von Schmettow of Silesia, Germany, to Benedict Fitzgerald, the organist and composer, is to be the culmination of one of the prettiest romances Greater Boston has seen in years.

The romance deals with a fair-haired, blue-eyed, little German girl, tenderly reared and groomed to be the wife of a nobleman, who meets and falls in love with a struggling young American musician and declares that she will marry him. The nobleman father, who has had such high hopes for his wise daughter, strenuously and persistently objects. She, the stronger, the little heroine becomes to her love of her American. She leaves her home, enters a convent in London, then comes away across the waters to a convent in America, and away from all her own people to be near the man she loves and prepare to embrace his faith and family name.

"Why should I stay with my mother and father when I love so much my friend?" she asked in her first broken English. "Did they not marry each other because they loved?"

Mrs. Raymond Bailed in the Hackett Case

Prosecuting Attorney Yields When the Prisoner's Health Begins to Fall Off.

AUGUSTA, Me., June 27.—Mrs. Elsie Hackett Raymond, who has been held a prisoner in the Kennebec County Jail here for the last three months awaiting trial on the charge of having murdered Mattie Hackett of Rockford, was today admitted to bail in the sum of $10,000 (her trial is set for October).

Since her arrest in March her counsel, Frank A. Mory of Lewiston, has worked persistently to secure her release. At first County Attorney Joseph Williamson strenuously opposed the motion, but the two months Mrs. Raymond has been confined has plainly told her physical condition and she is much at liberty in response to her for the course taken today.

CASH AT THE COUNTER cuts off all needless expense. If you take credit you are constantly tempted to buy things which you do not really need and many of which you would do without if you were paying cash. This is but one of the many ways in which cash buying promotes the household thrift. We know of nothing which better illustrates the thrift of cash buying than the Three-Hour Sales.

Titus Picks Cornell to Win
Ithacans the Best, Says Expert

By Constance S. Titus.

ITHACA, N.Y., June 27.—I had a very good look at the Ithaca team, and I must say I am not at all surprised to find them the best team in the league. They are a very good team, and I think they will win the championship. They are a very good team, and I think they will win the championship. They are a very good team, and I think they will win the championship.

They are a very good team, and I think they will win the championship. They are a very good team, and I think they will win the championship. They are a very good team, and I think they will win the championship. They are a very good team, and I think they will win the championship. They are a very good team, and I think they will win the championship.

The Cigar Industry of Boston

They are a very good team, and I think they will win the championship. They are a very good team, and I think they will win the championship. They are a very good team, and I think they will win the championship. They are a very good team, and I think they will win the championship. They are a very good team, and I think they will win the championship.

This label was adopted for the purpose of protecting the public against Coals, Convict and Tenement House Labor. Today this craft finds itself facing a monster enemy, the Tobacco Trust, whose untold wealth and power has enabled it to control the manufacture of cigars, tobacco and snuff, and the whole of the cigar industry.
